

A manga-style illustration depicting a battle. A young girl with blonde pigtails, wearing a red dress and a white satchel, is shown in a dynamic pose, holding a long, thin sword. She is standing on a green, rocky surface. Above her, a large, grey, monstrous creature with a wide, toothy grin and large eyes is reaching down towards her. The creature's hand is visible, with long, pointed fingers. The background is a light grey, suggesting a sky or a cave. There are some small, white, crystalline objects floating in the air. The overall style is typical of Japanese manga art, with bold lines and a limited color palette.
